

Amendments to the Claims:

Delete the Abstract and insert the following new Abstract:

Spinal fusion implants are laparoscopically placed in a disk space separating two vertebrae. Implant tools, including distraction spacers, boring tools and implants, are passed through a cannula toward the disk space.